

Red Hook Courts Obtain Grants

The Town and Village of Red Hook Justice Courts have received grants of $6,485.00 to pay for computer equipment and painting of the Town Courtroom.

Town Justice Jeffrey Martin said: "We are deeply gratified that we were able to obtain the funds for these important court enhancements at no direct cost to the Red Hook taxpayers."

Town and Village Justice Jonah Triebwasser went on to say that "these grants were a team effort. I thank the court staff - Court Clerks Kathy Fell, Nancy Roberts and Lori Urbin - as well as the Town and Village Boards, and various members of the Town and Village staffs for their invaluable assistance in obtaining these funds."

This is the fifth year that Justices Martin and Triebwasser obtained court grants. Since 2007, they have obtained more than $71,000.00 in grants, furniture and equipment for the Red Hook Courts from sources outside of direct Red Hook taxpayer funding.
